1 of those specialty products to -- mostly home health
2 care, but I'm sure there were other areas.

3 Q And so is it your understanding that Roxane
4 engaged the services of this consultant, Mark Pope,
5 to assist with the marketing strategy for this new
6 market?

7 A It was -- it was primarily to assist in an
8 understanding of the marketplace, which we didn't
9 have, to identify the targets, which we didn't know,
10 and understand how they function, how they buy, who
11 their suppliers are, how they operate.

12 So in that regards, yes, to -- to offer the 13 data or assistance to the company to write its
14 marketing plan.

15 Q Okay. And with respect to this '94 to '98
16 time period, is it your understanding that 17 wholesalers began playing a much larger role in the 18 distribution of Roxane's products?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Who were some of the big players in the
21 wholesale industry at that point in time that Roxane
22 was dealing with?

1 believe so.

2 Q Do you know when Leslie Paoletti joined the
3 marketing department?

4 A No, I don't.

5 Q Did Leslie join the marketing department after
6 Judy?

7 A I just don't know that.

8 Q And then what was Tom Via's position with
9 Roxane in January of 1997, if you recall?

10 A He was product manager for the branded palette
11 of care products.

12 Q Which would have included Oramorph SR,
13 correct?

14 A It would have, yes.

15 Q Okay. And was his department under your 16 supervision then? The group that he worked for at 17 that time, was it under your supervision as the vice
18 president of marketing and sales?

19 A He would have been within the department that
20 I supervised, managed, yes.

21 Q And I see down at the bottom here -- do you
22 see a CC line?
